Took part in Combined Operations raids on Spitzbergen, Vaagso, and Saint Nazaire. Wounded at Vaagso, March, 1942. Went to Middle East, Long Range Desert Group. Awarded M.M. for maintaining communications under concentrated fire during raid on Tobruk, 1942. P.O.W., Libya, October, 1942. Transferred to Italy. Escaped from prison camp in Central Italy, September, 1943. Behind enemy lines for eleven months. Re-joined own lines, August, 1944

Urquhart, Charles S M.C.

Lieutenant

Queen's Own Cameron Highlanders

Awarded M.C. for conspicuous service in Burma. The citation states " On 16/3/45 Lieut. Urquhart was in command of a platoon of a company whose task was the capture of the village of Mithwedaik.... The supporting tanks were held up by a road block covered by anti-tank guns...Under heavy fire Lieut. Urquhart led his men across the open, closed with the enemy, and over-ran the anti-tank guns. The village was by now in flames and the heat was exploding mines and booby traps, but Lieut. Urquhart again pressed on, and succeeded in clearing the village, capturing two 75mm. guns and killing many Japanese.
